

MEET THE COACH

Inspiring, equipping, and releasing the true identity of a champion in achievers is Veronica Karaman's passion and life mission. An excellent communicator and professional coach, Veronica uses her background as a professional golfer, educator, minister, and motivator to turn struggling students into top achievers.

Veronica attended Duke University on an athletic scholarship where she enjoyed a stellar amateur career in golf. After graduating with a B.A. in Management Science, she later attended Regent University where she earned two masters degrees in Biblical Studies and Communication with a 4.0 GPA in both degrees. As a Beasley Scholar, she graduated as the Most Outstanding Student in her class. Her golf career highlight was playing in the 1989 Women's U.S. Open.

From her extensive career in high level competitive athletics, Veronica combines champion mindsets from sports, spiritual formation processes, biblical insights, and her prophetic gifts to equip students to excel from a place of personal wholeness and their identity in Christ.

GOD'S WAY TO AN A

Are you ready for a game-changer in your studies?

- Are your grades dropping along with your motivation?
- Has the stress of study become overwhelming?
- Wondering if there is a better way to achieve academic success without burning out, freaking out, or giving up?

I asked myself the same questions as a struggling student in graduate school at Regent University. God revealed to me a revolutionary approach to study, not based on rules, but rather through developing an intimate relationship with God in my academics. I went from striving to abiding to soaring in my studies. I wanted other students to experience the same outrageous joy and victory I had, so I developed God's Way to an A, a 7-lesson curriculum empowering students to maximize their learning potential with the Greatest Professor of All.

I have personally trained more than 7,000 students to enter their academic champion zone. Now it's your turn! Join us for this one day transformational workshop where you will be awakened to view learning with new eyes, step out of performance and into His presence for true excellence.

Veronica Karaman,
Author of God's Way to an A
